

Virtual Jobfixers Belgian Rally Championship 2020 Regulations

A. General provisions

1. The simulation software to use in this championship is DiRT Rally 2.0. This software is in constant development, updates may appear during the rally. Jobfixers BRC and RACB Sport cannot be held responsible for changes or damage linked to software evolution. Therefore, it is requested to all drivers to understand that any problems or bugs may arise after an update and prevent the normal running of the rally. Furthermore, Jobfixers BRC or RACB Sport are not to be held liable in case of server issues in the DiRT Rally 2.0 simulator.
2. The management of the championship is done through the online platform dedicated to Codemasters championships in DiRT Rally 2.0: <https://dirtrally2.com/clubs>
3. Drivers from PC (STEAM), Xbox One and PlayStation 4 platforms can participate in the championship.
4. There will be no separate classification for each platform.
5. The Race Director in this championship is Stevy Courteyn, for all events. If there is any impossibility for the defined Race Director to configure a rally, the organization will appoint another member for this function.
6. Any situation not covered by these regulations that arise during the championship will be analyzed and decided by the Jobfixer BRC and the RACB Sport.
7. The championship settings to be used for each event are as follows:
  - Use hardcore damage: ON
  - Use unexpected moments: ON
  - Force cockpit camera: OFF
  - Allow assists: ON
  - Road conditions: at the discretion of the Race Director
  - Service areas: both quantity and duration at the discretion of the Race Director
